

ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA
COLLEGE

ILK COLLEGE

Dynamic and modern higher education institution striving for synergy between education, science and business

Join ILK and transform your future with an internationally recognized education in a safe, affordable, and opportunity-rich environment!

KAUNAS, LITHUANIA
WWW.ILK.LT

STUDY PROGRAMMES:

BEAUTY THERAPY

CULINARY ARTS *

EMERGENCY MEDICAL AID

HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT

IMAGE DESIGN

ORTHOPAEDIC TECHNOLOGY *

SOCIAL WORK

PASTORAL CARE *

 UNIQUE IN LT

WHY ILK?

97% employment rate after the graduation

Leading higher education institution based on students opinion

Unique study programs in Lithuania

Best market professionals for hands-on lectures

Modern facilities equipped with the most up-to date equipment

Old town location in the heart of Kaunas city

International experience with Erasmus+ study and practice internships

Self-expression opportunities in various fields

Internationally recognized diploma

BEAUTY THERAPY STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Awarded Qualification: professional Bachelor of Health Sciences
- Duration: 3 academic years (180 ECTS)
- Field of Study: Cosmetology, in the Health Sciences area
- Tuition Fee: €2,450 per semester
- Career Opportunities: graduates can work in beauty salons, SPA centers, rehabilitation facilities, and/or as self-employed beauty therapists

SALARY EXPECTATIONS IN LITHUANIA

1. DURING STUDIES

- Students participating in internships or part-time work in beauty therapy field earn approximately €500–€800 net per month.

2. AFTER GRADUATION

- Entry-level beauty therapists typically earn €1,000–€1,300 net per month, depending on their professional skills, workplace and location. The salaries of highly skilled and experienced beauty specialists in beauty sector, SPA therapies, aesthetic procedures can lead to salaries exceeding €1,400–€1,600 net per month.

BEAUTY THERAPY STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- HANDS-ON TRAINING: students gain in-depth expertise in cosmetology, mastering facial and body treatments through hands-on training with industry-leading professionals. Students are always ahead of beauty trends, learn the best customer service standards, and work with the latest cutting-edge equipment and premium quality products. Students elevate their skills and gain real-world experience training and working at our application beauty salon, "Esthetique Lab".
- GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES: Erasmus+ exchange programs offer monthly scholarships of €300–€700 for international study and internship opportunities.
- BROAD CAREER PROSPECTS: graduates are equipped to work in various sectors, including self-employment, beauty studios, and health institutions, and/or can launch their own business concepts.

WHY THIS PROGRAM?

This program offers advanced training in beauty therapy, as well as prepares students for financial independence during and after their studies. With tuition fees of €2,450 per semester, students gain access to an expanding job market where they can quickly recover their investment and achieve a stable income.

CULINARY ARTS STUDY PROGRAM

UNIQUE IN LITHUANIA

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Awarded Qualification: professional Bachelor's Degree in Technological Sciences
- Duration: 3 academic years (180 ECTS)
- Field of Study: Food Technology
- Tuition Fee: €2,450 per semester
- Career Opportunities: Graduates can work as chefs, sous-chefs, CDPs, F&B managers, food technologists, or food service company managers in restaurants, hotels, or catering companies

SALARY EXPECTATIONS IN LITHUANIA

1. DURING STUDIES

- Students undertaking internships or part-time work in the culinary field typically earn €800–€1000 net per month, depending on the professional skills and knowledge, as well experience.

2. AFTER GRADUATION

- Entry-level positions, such as chef assistant or junior food technologists, are offered salaries of €1,000–€1,300 net per month. Superior and managerial roles, such as sous-chef or CDPs, food production manager, often start at higher rates. With skill advancement and specialization, salaries can rise to €1,400–€1,800 net per month, especially for executive chef or management roles in high-end establishments.

CULINARY ARTS STUDY PROGRAM

UNIQUE IN LITHUANIA

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- UNIQUE CURRICULUM: it combines food science, fundamental and advanced food production knowledge (classic French cuisine, French Haute cuisine, Molecular cuisine, New Nordic cuisine), business (finance, marketing, entrepreneurship), preparing graduates for the highest culinary arts standards and leadership roles.
- HANDS-ON TRAINING: hands-on training practice with French and best Lithuanian chefs, professional internship in our application concepts: Michelin guide recommended restaurant “Arrivée”, bakery and pastry shop “Sweet Moon”, as well as practice in catering unit “Arrivée Gourmet Catering”, gaining practical experience in real-world environments.
- GLOBAL EXPOSURE: Erasmus+ exchange programs offer scholarships of €300–€700 per month for international study and internships. Erasmus+ study and practice opportunities at our partner institution Paul Bocuse Institute at Lyon, France.

WHY THIS PROGRAM?

The program offers a unique blend of high level and intensive practical training, extensive business management skills. With a tuition fee of €2,450 per semester, students invest in a career with solid earning potential, rapid growth opportunities, and the chance to work in dynamic and creative environments.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL AID STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Awarded Qualification: professional Bachelor's Degree in Health Sciences and Qualification of Emergency Paramedic
- Duration: 3 academic years (180 ECTS)
- Field of Study: Medical Technology
- Tuition Fee: €2,450 per semester
- Career Opportunities: graduates can work in hospitals, rehabilitation centers, and other healthcare facilities as emergency paramedics, healthcare team leads or as members

SALARY EXPECTATIONS IN LITHUANIA

1. DURING STUDIES

- Students working part-time as emergency medical assistants can earn €600–€900 net per month, depending on hours worked and the location of the job.

2. AFTER GRADUATION

- Entry-level paramedics typically earn €1,200–€1,500 net per month in Lithuania, depending on the employer and additional qualifications. With further experience and additional certifications, salaries can rise up to €1,500–€2,000 net per month, particularly in specialized emergency medical services or managerial roles.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL AID STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- SPECIALIZED CURRICULUM: program blends theoretical knowledge with practical experience, preparing students for real-life clinical scenarios. Our program goes beyond traditional training as it incorporates extreme situation scenarios to prepare students for the most challenging medical emergencies. From high-risk trauma cases to large-scale disaster response, students gain experience in managing critical situations with confidence and efficiency.
- HANDS-ON TRAINING: hands-on training takes place in simulation classrooms with the latest and the most up-to-date technology and equipment, where students gain expertise in providing emergency medical care to patients of all ages, backgrounds, and special needs. Through practical sessions students develop the skills to handle acute and emergency situations, leveraging available resources, advanced communication technologies, and crisis or extreme situation management strategies.
- GLOBAL EXPOSURE: Erasmus+ exchange programs offer scholarships of €300–€700 per month for international study and internships.

WHY THIS PROGRAM?

The Emergency Medical Aid program offers a unique opportunity to become a qualified paramedic and a team leader in Lithuania, addressing the growing demand for skilled professionals in emergency healthcare. With a tuition fee of €2,450 per semester, students invest in a career with strong earning potential and the opportunity to make a significant impact in their community.

HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Awarded Qualification: professional Bachelor's Degree in Business Management
- Duration: 3 academic years (180 ECTS)
- Field of Study: Tourism and Recreation
- Tuition Fee: €2,450 per semester
- Career Opportunities: graduates can work in accommodation, restaurant and catering, SPA, wellness centers, tourism agencies, or leisure service companies

SALARY EXPECTATIONS IN LITHUANIA

1. DURING STUDIES

- Students participating in internships or part-time work in hospitality industry typically earn €750–€1000 net per month, depending on their role and hours worked.

2. AFTER GRADUATION

- Entry-level salaries for hospitality managers and related roles range between €1,100–€1,400 net per month, varying by employer and job responsibilities. With continued experience and performance, salaries can grow to €1,300–€1,600 net per month, particularly in managerial or specialized roles within hotels, restaurants and SPAs.

HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- CURRICULUM AND PRACTICAL TRAINING: program curriculum focuses on hotel, restaurant and SPAs operational and financial management, tourism and recreation services, hospitality services, human resource and business (finance, marketing, entrepreneurship) fields. Students gain real-world experience through professional training in leading hotels, restaurants, SPAs and travel agencies.
- GLOBAL EXPOSURE: Erasmus+ exchange programs offer scholarships of €300–€700 per month for studies or internships abroad.
- DIVERSE CAREER OPTIONS: graduates depending on their skills and practical knowledge apply for various level positions in hotel and restaurant, catering, event planning, travel and tourism, resort management, SPA, hospitality consulting and various other guest relationship fields.

WHY THIS PROGRAM?

This program offers a world-class education meeting European standards, as well as equipping students with the skills to lead in tourism and hospitality industries. The tuition fee of €2,450 per semester is a valuable investment in a profession where graduates quickly achieve financial stability and long-term career growth.

IMAGE DESIGN STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Awarded Qualification: Professional Bachelor's Degree in Arts
- Duration: 3 academic years (180 ECTS)
- Field of Study: Design
- Tuition Fee: €2,450 per semester
- Career Opportunities: graduates can work in fashion, modelling, advertising, media, theatre, cinema, and entertainment industries or collaborate with beauty professionals in various businesses

SALARY EXPECTATIONS IN LITHUANIA

1. DURING STUDIES

- Students engaged in part-time roles related to image design, such as assistant stylists typically earn €500–€800 net per month, depending on their experience and workload.

2. AFTER GRADUATION

- Entry-level salaries for image designers in industries such as fashion, advertising, and media range from €1,000–€1,400 net per month, depending on field and role. As professionals build a portfolio and gain experience, salaries can increase to €1,200–€1,600 net per month, especially for roles in high-demand areas such as fashion styling, image consulting, or visual branding.

IMAGE DESIGN STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- CURRICULUM AND PRACTICAL TRAINING: future image design professionals are offered an opportunity to study history of arts and design, history of fashion and costume design, theory of colours and drawing, computer graphics, image design, psychology, fundamentals of business management, finance and marketing, as well as master effective communication skills. Hands-on modules, costume and image design projects provide students with an opportunity to create individual style and gain real-world experience with leading local artists and fashion designers.
- GLOBAL EXPOSURE: Erasmus+ exchange programs offer scholarships of €300–€700 per month for international study and internship opportunities.
- VERSATILE SKILLS: prepares students for diverse roles in fashion, beauty and creative industries, combining artistic and technical expertise.

WHY THIS PROGRAM?

This program provides students with the creative and technical skills needed to excel in image design field. With a tuition fee of €2,450 per semester, the program is an investment in a lucrative and creative career where graduates can achieve financial independence and professional success quickly after completing their studies.

ORTHOPAEDIC TECHNOLOGY STUDY PROGRAM

UNIQUE IN LITHUANIA

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Awarded Qualification: professional Bachelor's Degree in Health Sciences
- Duration: 3 years (180 ECTS)
- Field of Study: Medical Technology
- Tuition Fee: €2,450 per semester
- Career Opportunities: graduates can work in rehabilitation centers, hospitals, and other healthcare institutions

SALARY EXPECTATIONS IN LITHUANIA

1. DURING STUDIES

- Students engage in internships and part-time roles, earning €600–€1,000 net per month. Entry-level orthopaedic technologists typically earn €1,200–€1,500 net monthly, depending on location and specialization.

2. AFTER GRADUATION

- Graduates often achieve 70% of the average industry salary (€980–€1,200 net per month) within their first year of employment. With experience, salaries can grow to meet or exceed the Lithuanian healthcare sector's average (€1,400–€1,700 net monthly).

ORTHOPAEDIC TECHNOLOGY STUDY PROGRAM

UNIQUE IN LITHUANIA

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- CURRICULUM AND PRACTICAL TRAINING: the program curriculum focuses on anatomy and physiology, production technologies of orthopaedic equipment, fundamentals of orthopaedic devices (design, fabrication and fitting techniques), biomechanics of prosthesis and orthosis, assessment and fabrication techniques (evaluating and assessing needs, creating custom orthotics and prosthetics), patient care fields, as well as provides fundamentals of business management skills in finance, marketing, leadership and communication. Students have the opportunity to train in the most modern labs of the industry partners and benefit from a well-established training base at the college, ensuring hands-on experience with the newest technology and real-world applications.
- GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES: Erasmus+ exchange programs offer placements abroad with scholarships of €300–€700/month.
- BROAD CAREER PROSPECTS: graduates can pursue advanced roles in healthcare institutions or continue studies in second-cycle programs.

WHY THIS PROGRAM?

This program equips students with cutting-edge professional skills as well as provides financial flexibility through scholarships and part-time work opportunities. While the tuition fee is €2,450 per semester, graduates quickly recoup their investment through competitive salaries in a growing sector.

SOCIAL WORK STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Awarded Qualification: professional Bachelor's Degree in Social Sciences
- Duration: 3 academic years (180 ECTS)
- Field of Study: Social Work in the Social Sciences area
- Tuition Fee: €2,450 per semester
- Career Opportunities: graduates can work in social security system, healthcare, education, law institutions, and NGOs, or pursue further studies in related Master's programs

SALARY EXPECTATIONS IN LITHUANIA

1. DURING STUDIES

- Students can participate in internships and part-time social work roles, earning approximately €700–€900 net per month, depending on hours worked and location.

2. AFTER GRADUATION

- As experience grows and skills are refined, salaries can rise to meet or exceed the average minimum wage for social workers in Lithuania, reaching €1,200–€1,500 net per month.

SOCIAL WORK STUDY PROGRAM

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- CURRICULUM AND PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE: the program curriculum focuses on the following fields: social welfare policy, social environment and human behavior, ethics in social work, community organization and development, personal and social psychology, social project management, crisis intervention. Professional practice includes individual and family welfare work, community social work, and engagement in voluntary charitable activities.
- GLOBAL EXPOSURE: Erasmus+ exchange programs offer scholarships of €300–€700 per month for studies or internships abroad.
- HOLISTIC APPROACH: while learning about community dynamics, organizing strategies, and facilitate community change facilitation and development, graduates are prepared for professional work in diverse roles within social services, community development, aimed at improving the well-being of individuals and communities.

WHY THIS PROGRAM?

This program equips students with the skills to make a meaningful impact in local or international communities. With tuition fees of €2,450 per semester, students gain access to a rewarding career in social services where they can steadily grow their income and professional expertise.

PASTORAL CARE STUDY PROGRAM

UNIQUE PROGRAM IN LITHUANIA

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Awarded Qualification: professional Bachelor's Degree in Social Sciences
- Duration: 3 academic years (180 ECTS)
- Field of Study: Social Work
- Tuition Fee: €2,450 per semester
- Career Opportunities: graduates can work in healthcare, education, parish centers, religious organizations, and NGOs

SALARY EXPECTATIONS IN LITHUANIA

1. DURING STUDIES

- Students engaged in part-time roles in social work or pastoral care earn approximately €700–€900 net per month, depending on hours and responsibilities.

2. AFTER GRADUATION

- Entry-level pastoral care professionals typically earn €900–€1,200 net per month in roles such as social worker, pastoral care assistant, or NGO worker. With experience, salaries can grow to €1,100–€1,400 net per month, especially in specialized or managerial roles.

PASTORAL CARE STUDY PROGRAM

UNIQUE PROGRAM IN LITHUANIA

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- CURRICULUM AND PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE: as a one-of-a-kind program, it stands out with a dynamic and diverse curriculum focusing on social welfare policy, personal and social psychology, fundamentals of pastoral care, social project management. Emphasis is placed on the personal and spiritual growth of students. During hands-on practice students develop essential skills in counselling, listening, and providing support in diverse social environments.
- GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES: Erasmus+ exchange programs offer scholarships of €300–€700 per month for international study and internship opportunities.
- UNIQUE FOCUS: students connect their theological insights with practical pastoral care skills, enabling them to provide holistic support that addresses both spiritual and emotional needs.

WHY THIS PROGRAM?

This program offers a specialized education that prepares students for meaningful work in communities and organizations focused on spiritual and social well-being. With tuition fees of €2,450 per semester, graduates can quickly recover their investment through competitive salaries in a growing field.

ADMISSIONS / CONTACT US

Phone: +370 612 67469

Email: admissions@ilkk.lt